Thinking Out Loud

The credo of the Nevada County Dewey and Bricker Club, herewith presented, we heartily endorse, and submit for the consideration of all voters. It follows.

We are for Thomas E. Dewey

Because we believe our country needs his type of leadership in order to make the most of its opportunity to turn from victorious war to victorious peace.

Because he has shown determination to unite the country, not to divide it. He has never sought political advantage by playing workers against employers, labor against agriculture, labor unions against labor unions. He says that he never will and we believe him.

Because he has no affinity for communists and crackpots. There are no Browders among his supporters—and many a Browder disciple would get out of federal departments soon after Mr. Dewey came in. He would not clutter up the business of government with eurythmic dances, chronic cranks, professional do-gooders and feverish faddists intent on getting rid of other people's money.

Because he believes that it is government's duty to serve the people, not to rule them; to encourage honest, enterprising, jub-creating business and industry, not to dominate them; to deal justly with the members of economic groups, not to promote bloc competition and class warfare among them.

We are for Fred Houser for United States senator.

Because he has demonstrated that he knows how to give the people of California the kind of representation they need and want in the United State ssenate.

Because he is a staunch believer in a constitutional form of government.

Because is against the rule of the bureaucrats.

Because we know that he will not be absent from the United States senate when his vote is needed.

We are for Jesse M. Mayo for United States representative.

Because he knows the needs in this congressional district better than any of his opponents.

Because of his fine legislative record during the time that he was assemblyman from this districe.

Because of the fact that the next administration will be Republican; the next congress will be Republican; and the next senate will be Republican. We believe it to be the advantage of the distrist to send Republicans to both congress and the senate in this way assist Tom Dewey to re-establish this country on a strong constitutional basis.

REPRODUCTIONS OF PAINTINGS WILL BE SHOWN

More than one hundred and fifty fine reproductions of famous paintings will be exhbiited at the Elementary School auditorium November 13 to 17, in an educational art exhibit brought here under the joint sponsorship of the high school and elementary school Parent Teacher Associations.

Mrs. A. I. Rodriguez, committee chairman of the PTA announces that the display will be open to the public on November 15, at a tea from 2 to 5 p. m. Plans for this and other functions in connection with the exhibit are now being developed by the Art Exhibition Chairman, Mrs. David Lamson assisted by co-chairman David Lamson, and committee.

Admission tickets will be sold by high and elementary school pupils in the week before the exhibit opens. Money so raised will be used to purchase pictures for the school rooms.

ROOSEVELT AND HIS COMMUNIST SUPPORTERS

By SAMUEL B. PETTINGILL

Mr. Roosevelt says, "I have never sought and do not welcome the support of any person or group committed to communism."

Action speak louder than words.

Browder is the head of the Communist party in this country. And Mrs. Browder is the wife of Mr. Browder.

Mr. Roosevelt pardoned Browder from a federal pentitentary in the interests "of national unity."

Mrs. Browder, an alien illegally in this country, has been saved from deportation by a recent reversal of two decisions ordering her out.

Harry Bridges, found by Attorney General Biddle himself to be an alien Communist, is still in this country after four years.

Browder and Bridges are supporting Roosevelt. In fact, Browder was the first politicians to come out for a fourth term.

September 24 in a political rally at Madison Square Garden, Browder announced "American communists, will in 1944 support Roosevelt for president of the United States.' They have no other ticket in the field this year.

The CIO-PAC is supporting Roosevelt and blackjacking American workmen for campaign funds. According to the Dies committe, at lease 82 leaders of the PAC are either communists or have been members of Trojan horse groups which Mr. Biddle himself has said were used by the communist party preliminary to the "seizure of power by revolution."

Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt have for years done all in their power to discredit the Dies committee out of existence because it has exposed the communist tie ups of many of Roosevelt's appoineees and political supporters.

The PAC has spent thousands of dollars to defeat two members of the Dies committee.

Roosevelt has given his blessing to the PAC.

Jim Farley, a loyal American, knows these gentry on the inside, and he describes them as "alien minded."

The American Federation of Labor, also in a position to know, speaks of Sidney Hillman and his coterie of communists."

Pravda, the communist organ in Russia, has described Hillman as "Comrade" Hillman.

Hillman was an associate of Lenin and Trotsky in Russia, and has written a book favorable to the Bolshevik dictatorship.

Hillman's wife, Bessie Abramovitch, was a protege of the anarchist Emma Goldman, Hillman gave $3000 to support the communist newspaper Freiheit. Hillman is a director of the red "Garland Fund" which has helped maintain the Daily Worker, official communist organ, the New Masses and other communist papers.

Hillman has been repeatedly appointed by Roosevelt to federal jobs including OPM, predecessor of the WPB.

Thousands of patriotic CIO members are refusing to support the PAC because of communist penetration. They, too, are in a position to know.

In November 1939 when Stalin attacked Finland, Roosevelt denounced him as "a dictator as absolute as the world has ever seen." Stalin is now "Marshal" and Russia is a great and noble "democracy."

The communist party favors the confiscation of all incomes in the United States over $25,000 which would hobble men like Henry Ford trying to build a business. Roosevelt issued an executive order to that effect.

The communist party demands the abolition of the supreme court, or at least its poyer to hold laws unconstitutional. Roosevelt undertook to pack the supreme court because it held laws unconstitutional.

Alexander Barmine, a former Russian communist, holding a government job in New York as a translator, wrote a startling article denouncing American communism, which appears in the October "Readers Digest.' (Don't fail to read it. He says military intelligence files an communists have been suppressed.) A few days after publication Barmine was fired by the Roosevelt administration.

R. E. Gocke, of the FBI will give a lecture, setting up a crime scene demonstration. This will begin at 8 o'clock and end at 10. From 10 to 11 p. m. two FBI instructors in judo will demonstrate their work.

CASSETARI TO HEAD G. V. RED CROSS AGAIN

William J. Cassettari, attorney, has been chosen to head the Grass Valley Red Cross chapter for another year. He will be assisted by Mrs. Fred W. Nobs, vice chairman, and Harold Biggs, secretary treasurer.

Biggs reported that for the year ending October 1st, receipts had been $24,961.21 derived from War Fund $11,798; National Red Cross grant, $4,900; home service repayments, $3,932; and balance $3,647. The major expenses were home service, $11,617; production $1,325; special services $581. The balance as of October 1st is $9,217.53.

FREDERICK J. ABEGGLEN IS SUMMONED

Funeral services for the late Frederick John Abegglen, who passed away yesterday morning will be held under the direction of Holmes Funeral Home of this city at East Lawn Chapel in Sacramento Monday at 2 p. m. The obsequies will be conducted by Rev. Cedric Porter of this city.

The deceased was a native of Switzerland aged 70 years. He came directly to Sacramento in 1901 and engaged in cabinet making. Until his retirement he lived at 1010 V Street in that city. He was a member of the Helvetia Verein and took an active part in all its functions.

For the past few years he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. Florence MacBean of this city, whose husband Donald MacBean is on the staff of the Tahoe national forest. He also leaves a son, Sgt. Fred Abegglen now serving with the U. S. Army in the Pacific theatre and a granddaughter, Sally Virginia Mac Bean.

BRICKER OR TRUMAN LOOMS AS BIG ISSUE

As the 1944 presidential campaign swings into its final stretch, the real issue before the American voter has taken on a really alarming aspect, according to many competent observers.

More and more, the spotlight sharpens o nthe candidates for vice president, one of whom can very conceivably become president. This, together with the inside track which Sidney Hillman and Earl Browder hold in the New Deal, campaign, has apparently stopped many a voter cold in his tracks.

Grim reminders of the uncertainty of life have been brought home to us in the recent deaths of Wendell Willkie and Alfred E. Smith. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican candidate for president, was in a train wreck in which one man was fatally injured, and others might have been killed. One of them could have been Dewey.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, running for his fourth term as president, is 62 years old, and has been under a terrific strain during his whole twelve years as president. Never in robust health since the onset of infantile paralysis years ago, he today is clearly a tired and ailing man, despite all denials.

Without recounting all the disturbing rumors about the president's health, it is still very important to consider what would happen if he should die. It's only common sense to recognize that as a possibility.

In the event of Roosevelt's reelection on November 7, and in he event of his incapacity to carry on, the United States government and the American people would find themselves directly in the hands of Harry S. Truman. On the other hand if the same fate should befall Dewey, his successor would be John W. Bricker.

That's why a great deal more attention is being given, in these final days, to the two vice presidential candidates.

Truman, who failed as a little haberdasher back in Kansas City, and who came up through the political ranks as a protege of Boss Pendergast, one of the most corrupt politicians of our day, was made United States senator of Missouri because, as Pendergast said, he proposed to show that he could "make my office boy a senator if I want to."

Truman, even in his California speeches a few days ago, still defended the convicted Pendergast, and asserted his loyalty to him. In his speeches also he frankly embraced Sidney Hillman, CIO Political Action Committee chieftain, as an ally in the New Deal camp, and was so reckless as to say of a one time Ku Kluxer that "if he's one of us, I'm for him." The impression made by Truman on California audiences was anything but favorable.

On the other hand, Governor Bricker Republican candidate for vice president, has been acclaimed on all sides as a really big man. Three times governor of Ohio, with a record for progressive legislation accompanied by tax reduction, Bricker has won widespread admiration for his qualities of leadership and his ruggedly honest Americanism.

In only a few days the American people will decide which type of leadership they want. They will weigh at the polls what risks they are taking as between a continuance of the present administration and the selection of a new, younger and more vigorous leadership. Many an astute political analyst is predicting that the people of California and of the nation will adopt Dewey's slogan that "it's time for a change."

FOUND NOT GUILTY

A jury trying George Walters Jr. on a misdemeanor charge of stealing $4.50 in Justice of the Peace Charles Morehouse's court Wednesday, found the defendant not guilty.

The complaint brought by Douglas Hayden, investigator for the Pacific Telegraph and Telephone Company, alleged that Walters had robbed a telephone box.

NEVADA CITY TO SEE AND HEAR FAMOUS RUSSIAN ENTERTAINER

The Nevada City High School student body is sponsoring an interesting series of musical programs to come to Nevada City on four separate occasions, the first being Thursday evening November 2nd at 8 o'clock. For the convenience of the public the entertainment will be at the elementary school auditorium, which is more centrally located than the high school building.

Petrushka a famous Russian-American entertainer will give vocal and instrumental selections that have been presented by him in popular concert tours in many lands as from the United States. The musician has a keen sense of humor and does not offer "highbrow" entertainment, but something that can be enjoyed by all. Although this is a one man show it is colorful and varied with appropriate costumes and a keen understanding of public taste.

AWARD OF $300 PLACED ON HEAD OF BILL EBAUGH

An advertisement offering $300 for the apprehension of William Ebaugh, wanted for the murder of Henry Lewis, World War veteran on October 15th, appeared in the Nugget this morning.

The reward is for Ebaugh "dead or alive", and is offered by a 'committee of citizens" whose identity the sheriff has not revealed. It is believed, however, that some of the contributors to the bounty on Ebaugh's head are those whose summer homes in the forests here have been robbed by him during the past year.

All clues, however vague, are geing investigated by Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen and his augmented force of deputies. All of the deputies are experienced woodsmen and hunters, familiar with the country in which they are confident Ebaugh is hiding. The hills around Nevada City and surrounding Scott's Flat, above which Ebaugh's hideout in an abandoned tunnel was discovered on the same day the bullet ridden body of Henry Lewis was found in the Snow Mountain Ditch, are being systematically combed.

The man hunters return from their forest trailing, tired, sunburned and grimly determined to bring Ebaugh to justice. The sheriff warns his aids that their mission is a dangerous one and that since Ebaugh has committed one murder, he will not hesitate to shoot to kill. It is believed that he possesses at least four rifles and one automotive shotgun with a supply of buckshot cartridges. None of these weapons were found in the tunnel where Ebaugh lived for almost a year in hiding, while the sheriff was looking for him with a warrant on charge sof killing cattle. Sheriff Tobiassen states that he is certain Ebaugh keeps his guns cached in different places in the woods, so that in event he is taken and escapes, or for any reason loses one of his rifles, he can speedily rearm himself.

GOV. WARREN IN APPEAL FOR BIG DEWEY VOTE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30—From his sickbed at Sutter Hospital, Sacramento, Governor Earl Warren has called upon the voters of California and the nation to elect Governor Thomas E. Dewey, president of the United States on November 7th.

Governor Warren's statement urging the election of Governor Dewey as president, and Governor John W. Bricker as vice president, was released in San Francisco by William Reichel, Northern California Dewey-Bricker campaign chairman.

Governor Warren's endorsement of the distinguished Republican presidential candidate and his equally famed running mate follows:

"I am for Tom Dewey because I sincerely believe he will bring leadership to our national problems which will inspire teamwork. We must have teamwork if we are to win lasting peace and prosperity.

"Tom Dewey possesses the youth and vigor and the courage to get things done. His distinguished public career speaks for itself.

"And I am for John Bricker because I know he, too, has the executive capacity and experience in government administration required for the position which is but a heart beat from the presidency.

"Together, these two outstanding governors of two of our most important states constitute a team with which all levels of government and all the people can work in building a greater future. Believing this sincerely, I am for Tom Dewey and John Bricker and greater national unity of effort."

WAR CASUALTY TOWN COMES BACK

Every community is glad to hear that Port Chicago, the town that made headlines all over the world three monehs ago, is doing all rgiht. The little town where 322 were killed and millions in damage was caused last July 17 when two explosive laden Navy ships blew up, is getting back to normalcy—and in a big way.

Judge Otto Lichti, secretary of the Port Chicago disaster committee, reports that he expects by Christmas all reconstruction necessary from blast damage will be completed.

"We're all in good spirits," Judge Litchi said. "We're not worried about a recurrence and while we are at it we are giving the town a good face lifting and modernization."

Most of those homes and business establishments repaired and reconstructed are doing it with funds made available through navy claims settlements, under a bill by Congressman Albert E. Carter, authorizing increase of payments from $1,000 to $3,000 of individual claims that might be paid for personal injury or property damage.

Judge Lichti said that it was estimated that the average damage to Port Chicago's 300 homes was $1,300. This is the box score today: Fifty per cent of the damaged homes have been reconstructed or are in process of reconstruction. Twenty-five of the 27 business establishments have been reconstructed or are being rebuilt.

"We're really digging in," Lichti declared. "The navy has been fair. All in all we're doing all right. We're a pretty busy center, but we expect that by Christmas all evidence of blast damage will have been removed." That is a good deal to strive for. We can all join in the hope that little Port Chicago makes it by Christmas.—Contributed.

SENATOR CHAVEZ VISITS TAHOE FOREST

During a recent trip through the Tahoe national forest, Wednesday, United States Senator Dennis Chavez compared California with his own state of New Mexico and commented on the remarkable similarity between the two states in the economic relationships of the populated and valley areas to the forested regions. As in New Mexico, California forests attract large numbers of recreationists from other states, furnish employment either directly or indirectly for many people, supply summer feed for large numbers of livestock and stabilize the water supply for the valley regions.

Senator Chavez is a true conservationist with a broad knowledge of forest problems and because of this was commissioned by the Agricultural Sub-Committee of the Senate Appropriations Committee, of which he is a member, to make a field review of forest service post war planning needs. He stated that he was especially interested in the nature of forest work that needs to be done, the justification for it, and to observe specific projects that are to be done. Senator Chavez also expressed the need for a concerted effort by all conservation organizations to preserve our natural resources through their wise use thereby stabilizing dependent industries and furnishing a continuing source of income for adjacent communities and farming areas. This was further emphasized by pointing out as an example the Auburn Working Circle and its importance to the economic stability of Placer County.

While in Nevada City, Senator Chavez was able to enjoy a pleasant visit with Mrs. Grace Englebright, widow of the late Congressman Harry L. Englebright. Even though Senator Chavez and Congressman Englebright were affiliated with different political parties their problems were similar and they were good friends working together in the solving of their mutual problems.

Senator Chavez was accompanied on his trip by Assistant Forester C. B. Morse and Frank Jefferson of the Regional Foresters Office. M. W. Talbot, director of the California forest and range experiment station and staff members of the Tahoe forest. From the Tahoe the senator will proceed through the forested areas of Northern California and the Pacific northwest.

S. F. DEMOCRAT PLEDGES HIS VOTE TO DEWEY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30—Leland M. Kaiser, president of Kaiser and Company, San Francisco stock brokers firm, and a life long Democrat, today pledged his support to Dewey and Bricker.

Kaiser, member of the San Francisco and New York stock exchange, released a statement to William Reichel, Dewey-Bricker campaign chairman, giving his reasons why the Roosevelt New Deal administration must be defeated on November 7.

"I am against the reelection of Roosevelt," said Kaiser, "and I believe that the best interests of our country will be served by an overwhelming defeat of the New Deal.

"The Democratic party to which I belong has been hijacked by the New Deal party. The New Deal has burgeoned with arrogance, extravagance, confusion, inefficiency, and class distinction. It has fraternized with thugs, crooks and subversive elements.

"Most true Americans do not want a bureaucracy dictating when and where they can work, how much or how little they can earn. No system which rewards the shiftless, improvident and slothful, while penalizing the millions of hard working, ingenious, thrifty and independent citizens who want to carry on in the American tradition of self reliance, can find support among the voters of our nation."

As an American I want to see a strong two party system. As a Democrat, I realize our party in its present condition cannot possibly represent the thoughts and ambitions of the average American. President Roosevelt is the superstructure of the party, supported by the decaying and rotten foundation of the New Deal party. Take Roosevelt out of the picture and the entire New Deal crashes. Who has the party to rely on for strength and vigor? Certainly not Hillman, Murray, Hague, Hannegan, Flynn and Kelly. Who then? Roosevelt is the tenuous thread holding together a sad group of dissident minorities. They are even now exploring each other's backs for tender places to thrust a knife. What a bedlam could break loose if anything happened to Roosevelt.

STATE GRANGE APPROVE BETTER SCHOOLS ACT

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 30 — The California State Grangge, at its annual convention just concluded here, gave its unqaulified approval to Proposition 9 on the November ballot, designed to cope with the school crisis which has threatened to result in the closing of scores of elementary schools in rural areas.

Grade schools in tax poor farming areas, it was pointed out during the discussion, have been hard hit as a result of inadequate state support, and farmers and other common property taxpayers have been forced to carry an excessive share of the school load because of the failure of the state to keep pace with changing conditions.

Proposition 9, which would increase state aid for elementary schools from $60 per child per year to $80, would not only help to overcome the acute shortage of teachers, the Grange concluded, but would also bring relief to local property taxpayers.

California Registers 4,141,331 Voters

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 30—California's current registration for the November 7th general election is 4,141,331 the greatest in history and 88,936 larger than the all time high set for the 1940 presidential election, it was announced today by Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state.

Registration by party follows: Democratic 2,418,965; Republican 1,548,395; Prohibition 7,101; Miscellaneous 8,829; declined to state 158,041.

Jordan said of the total current registration 58.41 per cent is Democratic and 37.89 per cent Republican. The Republican party showed an increase its its percentage and the Democratic dropped as compared to the previous high registration in 1940. During the four year period the Republicans gained 90,022 registrations and the Democrats lost 663.

Out of the total registration 52 counties were Democratic and the remaining six Republican, the latter losing two since the May consolidated primary election.

The Republican counties are Alpine, Del Norte, Lake, Mendocino, Mono and Orange.

Registration of all parties in Nevada County follows: Democratic 4429; Republican 3425; Prohibition 10; Miscellaneous 25, declined to state 201, eotal 8090.

War Mothers! Wives! Let's act on the suggestion of the State Chamber of Commerce! Let's vote NO on No. 12. We must insure peace on the home front to keep faith with the boys on the war front. They'll be coming home soon. They'll want jobs at decent wages—not industrial strife, not coolie wages, not half-portions on the dinner table and, not a low standard of American living. Grave dangers lurk in the wording of No. 12. This measure comes as a war-time attack on war production. It threatens chaos now and in the post war world. No. 12 threatens the security of every wage earner. Let's join with all others in opposing un-American No. 12. As a leading editor warns, it "threatens civil war in California." Congressman

Clair Engle

Has a Record of Accomplishment

SAYS AUBURN EDITOR

(Reprint from California Mining Journal, October, 1944, J. P. Hall, Editor and Publisher.)

Voters of Congressional District No. 2, represented in Washington by Hon. Clair Engle, are not going to be fooled by a lot of political claptrap invented by the opposition candidate's manager, Sen. Jerry Seawell. They know that when the senator attended a meeting of the Placer County Republican central committee he urged that the committee endorse Engle if Congressman Engle would change his political affiliation. At that time Seawell told the committee that Engle was doing a fine job.

Since then, thousands of voters have remarked that Engle is improving, not only performing his duties in Washington but also in all parts of his district, getting first hand information on the problems of his constituents and taking immediate steps in their behalf.

Congressman Clair Engle's record is really remarkable for activity and accomplishment and wears the non-partisan label. His one aim has been to improve the industrial welfare of his district regardless of the politics of those he is aiding.

The opposition candidate has had to go to San Francisco and even to Los Angeles to get endorsements of his candidacy. The voters of the district have already shown that they do not want Los Angeles telling who their congressman should be in no indecisive figures and will continue to do so at the general election.

Late Season Fires Around Truckee

Ranger H. I. Snider of the Truckee ranger district reports several late season fires. Lightning was responsible for three fires and two were man caused.

Snider states one of the man caused fires occurred on McIver Hill just west of Truckee. Some boys had dug two pits on ehe hilltop and had attempted to burn old bones in each pit. Some of the unburned bones were identified as horse bones. Reason for the bone burning is not evident unless the lads were relieving some story book tale remeniscent of pirates and treasure buried with deadmen's bones.

NEW TYPE OF BAZOOKA PACKS TERRIFIC PUNCH

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 30—An announcement by General Electric reveals that a new type of bazooka has been desgined by the company for the field artillery.

TRANSPORTATION IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30—Thirty one new motor buses and 16 trackless trolyeys have been ordered by the public utilities commission as part of a broad program for increasing the city's transportation facilities following merger of the Market St. railway with the municipal railway.

The motor buses are slated to go into service in time to help handle Christmas traffic, but the trackless trolleys, orderer for the E Ferry to Presidio line, will not be delivered until next spring.

Commission officials believe that within two months the personnel deficiency that existed at the time of the merger will be wiped out and the city will have all the street car service it can hope for during the war emergency.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30—San Francisco took action this week to back legislation permitting the federal government to make loans for mining purposes.

The action was taken by the board of directors of the San Francisco chamber of commerce, in support of senate bill 2090 to authorize the reconstruction finance corporation to make loans for mining purposes, particularly in solution of problems created by the WPB order which closed gold mines.

The chamber mining committee recommended the amendment which would permit loans for the maintenance of mines now unable to produce.

HERE'S A LETTER EVERY VOTER SHOULD READ

Grass Valley, California
October 30, 1944

Dear Friend,

When you go to the polls to cast your vote on November 7, this should be take ninto consideration. The present administration has been in power for very nearly twelve years and is asking that they be continued in office for another four years. They explain away their past record by the cry of experience and age; they draw a cloak over the fact that they are also asking for the continuance in office of Hopkins, Ickes, Perkins and Biddle, and the fellow travelers that have been following along with the administration together with the hundreds of bureaus and political setups that are mismanaging, stifling and bankrupting our country to the extent that the soldiers who are fighting in the far flung battlefields of the world will come home and face the largest deficit that one country ever echieved.

When the leaders of a country of 135,000,000 people with less than 10 per cent of the resources of the world acquire a debt which exceeds the combined debts of all the other countries in the world, their claims of leadership and experience are absurd.

On the other hand, Dewey together with the assistance of a cabinet of experienced and able men would achieve through the expansion of business and trade by free enterprise a sane and able government. And we believe his election carries the one best and last remaining hope for the retention of traditional American Democracy as we have known and loved and treasured it, in the United States.

Sincerely yours,

NEVADA COUNTY DEWEY-AND BRICKER CLUB.

JOBS AND OPPORTUNITY

"It took a World War to get jobs for the American people.

"Now, Washington is getting all set for another depression. They intend to keep the young men in the Army. The New Deal spokesmen are daily announcing that reconversion will be difficult, if not impossible. They say that relief rolls will be enormous.

"The reason for this long continued failure is twofold. First, because there never was a worse job done of running our government.

"When the W.P.B. fell apart, so did your chance under this administration for jobs after the war.

"The other reason for this long continued failure is because this administration has so little faith in the United States. They believe that our task is not to produce more goods but to fight among ourselves over what we have.

"I believe that we have not even begun to build our industrial plant. No living man has yet dreamed of the limit to which we can go if we have a government which believes in the American economic system and in the American people.

"There can be—there must be—jobs and opportunity for all at a high level of wages and salaries."
